

Title IX Policies, Coordinator and Procedures for DVCLAX

Title IX originated in 1972 as part of the educational amendments of the U.S. Department of Education, since updated and now barring discrimination on the basis of sex, gender identity or failure to conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity, race, disability, full or part-time status, or national origin in all activities. The non-discriminatory policy applies to both students and employees in education and all other activities that take place on campus. Also barred are all forms of sexual harassment, abuse, assault.

Discrimination is also barred because of parental status, nor can parental status be required as a requirement for enrollment.

Any student or employee who feels that he/she has been subjected to discrimination, harassment or assault should report the incident(s), to Jeannette Aquino Title IX Coordinator, located in the records office. Telephone (310) 530-3501, e-mail jeannette.aquino@dvcla.edu. The Coordinator recommends appropriate action to the school administration and records the outcome of any action taken or reasons for rejecting the complaint and maintains a record of complaints, action recommended and resolution of the complaint.

Diversified Vocational College/LAX has no athletic programs, nor does it provide school owned residential facilities.

The Title IX Coordinator also participates in periodic training programs for employees.
